

Figure skate blade comparison chart

Blade	Usage	Skill Level	Pick configuration	Composition material	Rocker	Suggested R.O.H.	Size range	Equivalent blades
VICTORY	Freestyle	Advanced freestyle, triple and quad jumps	Cross cut	Stainless	8' ^[C]	1/2"	8 1/4" - 12"	MK Phantom, MK Gold Star, John Wilson Pattern 99, John Wilson Gold Seal, Jackson Elite, Jackson Matrix, Riedell Pinnacle
NINETY-NINE	Freestyle	Advanced freestyle, double, triple and quad jumps	Straight cut	Stainless, Carbon	8'	7/16"	8 1/4" - 10 3/4"	John Wilson Pattern 99, MK Phantom, MK Gold Star, John Wilson Gold Seal, Jackson Elite, Jackson Matrix, Riedell Infinity
SIGNATURE	Freestyle	Combination spins, advanced edge work and double jumps	Cross cut	Stainless, Carbon	7'	1/2"	7 3/4" - 12"	MK Professional, John Wilson Coronation Ace, John Wilson Coronation Comet, Riedell Aurora, Jackson Legacy
MEDALIST	Freestyle	Combination spins, advanced edge work and double jumps	Straight cut	Carbon	8' ^[C]	1/2"	7 1/2" - 12"	MK Professional, MK Vision, John Wilson Coronation Comet, Jackson Protege
SYNCHRO	Synchro	Intermediate to advanced synchro, single and double jumps	Straight cut	Carbon	9' ^[C]	1/2"	8 1/4" - 12"	Jackson Finesse
DANCE	Dance	Advanced / competitive dance	Straight cut	Carbon ^[N]	7'	3/8"	8 1/4" - 12"	Jackson Dance, Riedell Dance, John Wilson Coronation Dance, MK Dance
SOLO	All purpose	Basic spins, edge work and single jumps	Straight cut	Carbon	7'	1/2"	7 1/2" - 12"	MK Single Star, MK Double Star, John Wilson Majestic, Jackson Mirage, Riedell Volant

[C] Complex radius, provides a larger radius at the rear of the blade to increase flow and speed in forward skating. [N] Narrow edge design, creates very fast and clean changes of edge.